CompTIA Project+ Certification Exam Score Report PK0-004

CANDIDATE:	Steven Linthicum
CANDIDATE ID:	COMP10110850
REGISTRATION NUMBER:	349026123
EXAM:	CompTIA Project+ Certification Exam
DATE:	2/13/19
SITE NUMBER:	68378
PASSING SCORE:	710
CANDIDATE SCORE:	736
PASS/FAIL:	Pass

The CompTIA Project+ Certification Exam has a scaled score between 100 and 900.

You incorrectly answered one or more questions in the following objective areas:

- 1.3 Compare and contrast standard project phases
- 1.6 Given a scenario, execute and develop project schedules
- 1.8 Explain the importance of human resource, physical resource and personnel management
- 2.1 Given a scenario, predict the impact of various constraint variables and influencers throughout the project
- 2.2 Explain the importance of risk strategies and activities
- 3.2 Compare and contrast factors influencing communication methods
- 3.3 Explain common communication triggers and determine the target audience and rationale
- 3.4 Given a scenario, use the following change control process within the context of a project
- 3.5 Recognize types of organizational change
- 4.1 Compare and contrast various project management tools
- 4.2 Given a scenario, analyze project centric documentation
- 4.3 Identify common partner or vendor centric documents and their purpose

For a complete listing of CompTIA Project+ Certification Exam objectives, please visit certification.comptia.org.